FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GATETRADE ANNOUNCES ADVERTISING AVAILABLE ON THEIR WEBSITE

San Francisco, CA – May 29, 2008 Dr. Susan Tan Luo, Founder and CEO of GateTrade, is pleased to announce that GateTrade members can now advertise on the GateTrade website.

Placed advertisements will be viewed not only by visitors to the GateTrade home page, but also by those who view the free online market reports. Visitors to the site include GateTrade's members from over 900 companies and other industry decision-makers from over 100 countries.

Members include oils producers, plantation owners, consumers, refiners, trading companies, brokers, agents, financial institutions, trucking companies, surveyors, equipment suppliers, chemical producers, and more. Most members are in the palm oil, coconut oil and biodiesel industries.

Advertisements can be placed for as little as $50 per month. Additional details are available at www.gatetrade.com/advertise.htm.

About GateTrade – GateTrade is a privately held company headquartered in San Francisco, California, USA. GateTrade acts as an electronic intermediary to provide a secure, rich trading environment that directly connects buyers and sellers of agricultural products. GateTrade has built a global electronic marketplace to modernize agribusiness transactions by instantaneously reporting trades as they occur. The marketplace displays selling and buying ideas in a real time environment, which enhances the price discovery process.
